Casey, who is included in the thread, was the AWS person working with us on the DHS homelessness effort.

Justine is the director of the RIPL organization I sent yesterday.

We should connect back with Casey.

Hi Casey, Mark:

I am connecting you with Dan O'Connor whom I met in person Wed in DC, and who attended my Brookings/Hamilton forum yesterday on Fact Based Policy for State and Local Government. He's expressed his excitement for the project and would like to be involved/stay in the loop/add some help where needed as we progress given the overlap with public policy.

Here is a link to the paper that was released with the event yesterday.

Attached are guest lists in case of interest.

Justine
