

From: Jack Belcher
Sent: Monday, December 17, 2018 9:11 PM EST
To: Dubois, Kelley (duboiskd@amazon.com) <duboiskd@amazon.com>
Subject: Got Your message

Putting together a bio on the fly, I am not about me, but here is some thoughts as to what I have done

- Graduate of Georgetown University, PhD, MA in International Affairs and Computation Analytics
- Nineteen years and 300 days as an applications manager at the United States House of Representatives
 - In that time,
 - § introduced the Internet to the House of Representatives
 - § assigned email addresses to all house members
 - § orchestrated on line election results tracking at election night
 - § implemented on-line access for Member Offices of online grant and contract bid availability
 - § Recognized as Federal News 100 Top IT executives
- Three years at US Securities and Exchange Commission
 - In that time,
 - § Addressed need for transparency in the provision of Securities Data for the public consumption
- Three years at the International Monetary Commission (IMF)
 - In that time
 - § Developed framework for electronic knowledge
- Eighteen Years and still alive, as the first CIO at Arlington County
 - Framed by the events of September 11, 2001
 - Variety of Achievements of note
 - § Migration to cloud based ERP
 - § Implementation of VoIP
 - § Migration to Cloud Based Microsoft Exchange
 - § Implementation of Office 365
 - § Creation of first Chief Information Security Officer in National Capital Region
 - § Integrated support of First Responders to include
 - 9/11 support
 - Anthrax response
 - New Orleans Katrina Response
 - DC Sniper Attacks
 - Recognized as the CIO 100 award by CIO Magazine
 - Recognized as the number one Digital County, 2016, 2017, 2018

Rst
Jack Belcher
Chief Information Officer
Arlington County
Telephone 703 228-3220
www.arlingtonva.us