Subject: Fwd: keeping you updated

Andrea and Brian,

So that you know, the reporter who I mentioned below on Friday, with whom I declined to comment used my comments from my January 2nd speech in an article.

I declined to say anything to her and I do not like the implication that I am concerned about this partnership as I support the project, but it is true that I said the quotes Ms. Olivia Solon mentioned on January 2nd and I do still believe in the comments I made.

If you have any additional questions or concerns, please feel free to call me at your convenience. 703-732-9326.

If this of any concern, I apologize. In the case of last Friday, I did not think it appropriate for me to speak in an article I thought was seeking to stir up opposition to a partnership I support.

Matt

Andrea,

Just to keep you updated, I received a request from Olivia Solon with NBC Universal to speak with her about HQ2 and politely declined. I think she wanted to write an article that is not worth responding to.

I wanted to share this with you, consistent with our phone call the other evening and my continued confidence in the work we'll do.

Hope you have a good weekend—reachable via need be. My cell is 703-732—9326 if you should need to reach me.

Best,

Matt
