Subject: RE: Follow-up and available to meet in early January

3 pm is perfect.

At this time, it will be me.

Sure, Thursday's good--could you come between 3 and 5? How much time do you think you need?

Would you mind sending the names and titles of whoever else may be attending? That will also help me know which size room to reserve. If you have any info you would like him to review in advance, feel free to send them to him and copy me.

Subject: Follow-up and available to meet in early January

I know you heard from Brian Moore on my team, but I wanted to reach out directly. Would have time to meet in early January? It would be great to hear your perspectives on next steps as we move forward with our headquarters here. We are super excited about our partnership with the County.
