Subject: Following up: Northern Virginia Regional Commission

Hi Andrea (and Ardine): I was at NVRC tonight and spoke with our Chair, Mayor Laurie DiRocco and Bob Lazaro the NVRC Executive Director, as well as Sharon Bulova, Chair of the Fairfax County Board. All were enthusiastic about having Amazon come to talk with commissioners about workforce development.

As I mentioned, NVRC has been focusing on regional workforce issues for several years. I think this could be a very good opportunity for Amazon to hear from many of the local elected officials in N. Virginia and for us to hear from you. I think we all have the same goals in this area.

Iâ€™m copying Bob and Laurie here so you can connect directly with them to work out what date and format seem most useful. All best, Libby
