Thanks Holly - last night was fun to see everyone again in a relaxed setting. Thanks for the info about today's meeting - unfortunately I have a conflict and won't be able to attend.

We are reviewing your comments on the agreement - I think early next week we will want to coordinate a call with you and Lloyd.

Sorry about your daughter - hope she feels better fast!

Christina

Hey!
Great hanging out last night- a ton of fun. I think you and Andrea connected earlier today. The BID is informal and at 3 today at 2011 Crystal Dr.

Unfortunately, I was driving that way for other meetings and my nanny called because my daughter is running a fever. So, I won't be there- duty calls at home.

On the agreement, let me know if you and counsel want to jump on a call in the next few days.

Thanks!
Holly
