Andrea & Jake –

I would like to introduce you to John Morrill with Arlington County – he is the Energy Manager in the Office of Sustainability and Environmental Management and is interested in speaking with you about renewable energy, sustainability and green building programs.

John – Andrea is the Public Policy Director for Amazon and our main point of contact. Jake is Head of Energy Policy for Amazon. Andrea can be available for a call next week and then when Jake comes into town in late April you all can schedule a deeper dive meeting in person.

John – can you send some times that your team is available to Andrea for a call next week? And, I will step out of it and let you all coordinate.

Thanks!
Christina
