Good afternoon, Holly,

A quick follow-up.....ideally, we would like you and Matt to be VIP speakers at our VIP Luncheon, 11:30 am – 1 pm. It is our pre-Summit luncheon for VIP ticket holders. I do not think I clarified this in my previous reply yesterday.

Again, much gratitude for your consideration, Holly,
-Alan

Victor:

Thank you. I'm very grateful for this introduction to Holly.

Holly:

It is a pleasure meeting you via Victor's email introduction. I was among the "hundreds" who was unable to attend the Biznow event last week! Victor has done a terrific job presenting this May 16th CRE Summit in his email to you.

Needless to say, you and your reputation are highly thought of and respected, inside and outside the commercial real estate industry. It would be an immense honor if you can join us for this event. A big reason I'm involved is that my organization, The Lourie Center for Children's Social & Emotional Wellness, is the "cause partner" for the Summit.

Holly, may I recommend a conference call?

I would like to ask the CRE Summit co-founder, Seema Alexander, to join us (she is copied on this email). We can tell you more about the Summit, and what we're thinking in terms of your participation with Matt (Kelly).

Let me know, if we can schedule a call this week, will email some dates/times.

I'm very grateful to you, as well, Holly,
-Alan

Holly,

I wanted to take a moment to introduce you to Alan Ezagui. He is working in Partnership with the Commercial Real Estate (CRE) organization on May 16th to bring together the best speakers on the most "cutting edge" topics in the commercial real estate industry in the DMV Region. I have copied Alan Ezagui above.

He had hoped that you would consider being on a panel to give your perspective on Amazon HQ2 (the deal of the century). Alan will also be reaching out to Matt Kelly of JBG to have him present his perspective. It would be similar to the Biznow event that just occurred in National Landing. However, it would be at the Wharf in DC and have an audience of about 200 commercial real estate executives, public officials, brokers, economists and business leaders. As you know, the Biznow event was sold out at 900 and there were hundreds of people that did not attend that would like to hear from you.

The full agenda can be found on the link below. Please note that David Petr, CEO of Montgomery County Economic Development and I will be on another panel discussing regional economic development and workforce development. The CRE Connect Summit was created for developers, investors, and the public sector who want to be in the know on the most pertinent topics and outlooks impacting the DMV's commercial real estate market.

I did explain to Alan that your schedule was packed with regional, national and global responsibilities, so if for some reason you could not be there he would understand and hope that someone from your Team could represent Amazon.

Alan will be contacted you as a follow up to this email and I appreciate your time.

All My Best,

Victor
