Thanks, Andy,

I'm supposed to be in the JBG Marketing Building this afternoon for an Adam Ebbin event - any chance you'd be in the vicinity for a quick touch-base after, around 1:45 pm?

If not, I'll aim to give a call today or tomorrow, if you can give me a general sense of the best times to reach you?

Katie

We should discuss next steps on this matter this week. I waited a couple days too long to respond...

Best of luck with everything tomorrow.

Are you amenable to one more follow up meeting with the labor group from the summer (Ginny Diamond from the cross-trades coalition and Steve Courtien with AFL-CIO, as well as Tom Bowman)?

I really appreciate your efforts at keeping the window open for a collaboration with LiUNA, especially given initial skepticism from your GCs, and Ginny had reached out to me hoping that we could at least touch base once more on whether there's a path (near or long term) on a multi-craft partnership or agreement.

Let me know if so – we can stay flexible on the timing, since things may be about to get a little hectic, but we'll try to offer some dates in the meantime.
