Hi, Andy,

Thank you for following up to touch base on this before the holiday - much appreciated. (I've also been meaning to thank you for such a great note the other day... I really appreciated it. And am also happy to connect soon re: naming.)

Forgive me, unfortunately I've been in and out of email today as I'm on the road, and am afraid I'm going to miss my window to catch you before 4. Are you working Friday? No problem if not - I can aim for first thing on Monday morning.

Thanks again,
Katie

Katie,

Happy Thanksgiving! Let me know if you are free to catch up for 15 min today on this topic. If so, I can step out of any meeting to take your call so let me know. I'll be done with work by 1:30, but happy to catch up anytime before 4.

Best, Andy

Thanks, Andy,

I'm supposed to be in the JBG Marketing Building this afternoon for an Adam Ebbin event - any chance you'd be in the vicinity for a quick touch-base after, around 1:45 pm?

If not, I'll aim to give a call today or tomorrow, if you can give me a general sense of the best times to reach you?

Katie

We should discuss next steps on this matter this week. I waited a couple days too long to respond...

Are you amenable to one more follow up meeting with the labor group from the summer (Ginny Diamond from the cross-trades coalition and Steve Courtien with AFL-CIO, as well as Tom Bowman)?

I really appreciate your efforts at keeping the window open for a collaboration with LiUNA, especially given initial skepticism from your GCs, and Ginny had reached out to me hoping that we could at least touch base once more on whether there's a path (near or long term) on a multi-craft partnership or agreement.

Let me know if so – we can stay flexible on the timing, since things may be about to get a little hectic, but we'll try to offer some dates in the meantime.
