Mark (and group),

Thanks for sending this email and connecting all of us. I finally have our project team lists that I can share for coordination of our organizations. While I'm engaging in all Arlington related issues, you'll see that I have identified a key contact (in highlight) on the attached worksheet for each project, who will really be the best resource for your team if there are detailed questions. I'd like to be kept in the loop, but ideally each of our teams can work out most matters without further senior level engagement.

My contact information (for anyone who doesn't already have it) is included below. Please reach out with any questions or comments. Anything we can do to facilitate ease of communications and address items before they become problems is something I am fully supportive of!

Best, Andy

Subject: Steering Group members

Andy: I have copied the members of the Steering Group I have put together.

Feel free to reach out to any of them as they are a singular organism with full Borg-like interconnections – and abilities to find others in the County who need to help. Erik is handling Parks related issues, Jennifer is our communications person – the others I know you have worked with before.

Mark
