

ANDY VANHORN

Executive Vice President, JBG SMITH

Mr. VanHorn has over 15 years of experience in various aspects of real estate and is responsible for the entitlement oversight and planning of JBG SMITH's development activities in National Landing, including Amazon's HQ and the associated infrastructure improvements. He has completed over two million square feet of entitlement in Arlington County, including the Rosslyn Gateway and Central Place projects in Rosslyn.

He is very active in both Arlington and Alexandria, through participation on public and private committees and boards in those two markets. Mr. VanHorn currently serves as an Executive Committee Member and Board Member of both the Rosslyn BID and the Crystal City BID, and a Board Member of Virginia NAIOP and the Arlington Partnership for Affordable Housing.

The JBG Companies merged with Vornado DC, and formed JBG SMITH, the largest publicly traded REIT in the Washington Metro region in July 2017. Prior to his current role with JBG SMITH, Mr. VanHorn was a Principal with The JBG Companies. Mr. VanHorn also worked for two years in real estate private equity with Buvermo Properties, and for Charles E. Smith and Clark Construction in various roles after completing his undergraduate degree. B.S. in Civil Engineering, Lehigh University; M.B.A., McDonough School of Business - Georgetown University.